

Privacy policy

Hegykő, 08 June 2026.

1. INTRODUCTION

ORIGO-SÁNTA INGATLAN Private Limited Company (registered office: 9437 Hegykő, Alsószer Street 18., Ground Floor 17., Hungary; tax number: 11403373-2-08), as the operator of the hospitality establishment (café) known as Café Lazuli (NTAK registration number: CU22049918) (hereinafter: the “Service Provider” or the “Data Controller”), acknowledges the contents of this Privacy Notice as binding upon itself.

The Data Controller undertakes to ensure that all processing of personal data carried out in connection with its activities complies with the requirements set out in this Privacy Notice, the applicable Hungarian legislation, and the legal acts of the European Union.

This Privacy Notice applies to visitors of the café’s website, natural persons who purchase products or use services on-site or for takeaway, and participants in the loyalty program (hereinafter collectively referred to as the “Guest” or “Data Subject”).

This Privacy Notice is based on the following legislation:

- GDPR: Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data.
- Hungarian Information Act (Infotv.): Act CXII of 2011 on Informational Self-Determination and Freedom of Information.
- Accounting Act: Act C of 2000 on Accounting.
- Consumer Protection Act: Act CLV of 1997 on Consumer Protection.
- Advertising Act: Act XLVIII of 2008 on the Basic Requirements and Certain Restrictions of Commercial Advertising Activities.

2. DEFINITIONS

- Personal data: Any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (“data subject”); an identifiable natural person is one who can be identified, directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, number, location data, online identifier, or one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.
- Processing: Any operation or set of operations performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means, such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

- Data Controller: The natural or legal person which, alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.
- Data Processor: A natural or legal person which processes personal data on behalf of the data controller.
- Personal data breach: A breach of security leading to the accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure of, or access to, personal data transmitted, stored or otherwise processed.

3. DETAILED DATA PROCESSING ACTIVITIES AND DATA PROCESSORS

3.1. WEBSITE OPERATION, SERVER LOGGING, AND ESSENTIAL (TECHNICAL) COOKIE MANAGEMENT

- Scope of processed data: IP address, exact time of visit, visited subpages, type of operating system and browser used by the data subject
- Purpose of processing: Ensuring the technical operation, stability, and security of the website, as well as properly storing and logging cookie consent
- Legal basis: Legitimate interest of the Data Controller [GDPR Article 6(1)(f)] in ensuring the secure and functional operation of the website
- Duration of processing: These technical (session) cookies are automatically deleted when the browser is closed
- Data processors and technical partners involved in the process:

3.6. CCTV SURVEILLANCE SYSTEM

- Categories of personal data processed: Video recordings captured by the surveillance cameras.
- Purpose of processing: Protection of persons present on the café premises and safeguarding the café's property and equipment, as well as the prevention, detection, and evidentiary documentation of unlawful acts (e.g., vandalism or violations of house rules).
- Legal basis for processing: Article 6(1)(f) GDPR (the legitimate interest of the Data Controller in ensuring security and protecting property).
- Retention period: Recordings are automatically overwritten by the system depending on the storage capacity of the device but are deleted no later than 3 working days (72 hours) after recording, unless a specific recording must be isolated and retained as evidence for legal proceedings or investigations conducted by competent authorities.
- Storage and access: Recordings are stored directly on the installed cameras (or on their associated local recording unit) in a physically secured and restricted-access environment. Access to the recordings is limited exclusively to the Data Controller. No external data processor (such as an IT maintenance provider) may access, view, or otherwise process the recorded footage.

3.7. CONSUMER PROTECTION COMPLAINT HANDLING

- Scope of Processed Data: Name, address, description of the complaint, its location and time, and the content of the official record taken of the complaint.
- Purpose and Legal Basis of Processing: Fulfilment of a legal obligation under Act CLV of 1997 on Consumer Protection [Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR].
- Duration of Processing: In accordance with legal requirements, complaint records and related documents must be retained strictly for 5 years. No external data processor is involved in this process.

4. RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT AND LEGAL REMEDIES

The Data Controller informs the Data Subject (Guest) that, under Chapter III of the GDPR (Regulation (EU) 2016/679), they have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data. The Data Controller shall assess the request and provide information on the measures taken in writing or electronically within a maximum of 1 month from receipt of the request, which may be extended by an additional 2 months in justified cases.

4.1. RIGHT OF ACCESS (GDPR ARTICLE 15)

The Data Subject has the right to obtain confirmation from the Data Controller as to whether personal data concerning them is being processed. Where such processing is taking place, the Data Subject has the right to access the personal data and information relating to the processing (purposes of processing, categories of data, recipients, storage period), and may request a copy of the personal data undergoing processing.

4.2. RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION (GDPR ARTICLE 16)

The Data Subject has the right to obtain from the Data Controller, without undue delay, the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning them. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the Data Subject also has the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of a supplementary statement.

4.3. RIGHT TO ERASURE (“RIGHT TO BE FORGOTTEN”) (GDPR ARTICLE 17)

The Data Subject has the right to obtain from the Data Controller the erasure of personal data concerning them without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- the Data Subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based and there is no other legal ground for the processing;

- the Data Subject objects to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;
- the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- the personal data must be erased for compliance with a legal obligation under Union or Member State law applicable to the Data Controller.

Restriction of the Right to Erasure: The erasure request may be refused where processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation applicable to the Data Controller (in particular accounting obligations), or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

4.4. RIGHT TO RESTRICTION OF PROCESSING (GDPR ARTICLE 18)

The Data Subject has the right to obtain restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- the accuracy of the personal data is contested (for a period enabling the Data Controller to verify the accuracy);
- the processing is unlawful and the Data Subject opposes the erasure of the data and requests the restriction of its use instead;
- the Data Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of processing, but they are required by the Data Subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- the Data Subject has objected to processing (pending verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Data Controller override those of the Data Subject).

Where processing is restricted, personal data may, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the Data Subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims, or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person.

4.5. RIGHT TO DATA PORTABILITY (GDPR ARTICLE 20)

The Data Subject has the right to receive the personal data concerning them, which they have provided to the Data Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and has the right to transmit those data to another controller, where the processing is based on consent [Article 6(1)(a)] or on a contract [Article 6(1)(b)], and the processing is carried out by automated means.

4.6. RIGHT TO OBJECT (GDPR ARTICLE 21)

The Data Subject has the right, on grounds relating to their particular situation, to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning them which is based on the legitimate interests of the Data Controller or a third party [Article 6(1)(f)]. In such cases, the Data Controller shall no longer process the personal data unless it demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the Data Subject, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

4.7. RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT (GDPR ARTICLE 7(3))

Where processing is based on the Data Subject's consent [Article 6(1)(a)], the Data Subject has the right to withdraw their consent at any time. Withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

4.8. LEGAL REMEDIES AND ENFORCEMENT

Administrative remedy (complaint to the supervisory authority): If the Data Subject considers that the processing of personal data relating to them infringes the GDPR or applicable data protection laws, they have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority:

- Name: National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information (NAIH)
- Seat / Postal address: 1055 Budapest, Falk Miksa utca 9-11, Hungary
- Mailing address: 1363 Budapest, P.O. Box 9
- Email: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu
- Website: <https://naih.hu>

Judicial remedy (right to bring proceedings): The Data Subject may bring legal proceedings against the Data Controller in case of violation of their rights. The case falls within the jurisdiction of the Regional Court (Törvényszék). The proceedings may be initiated, at the Data Subject's choice, before the Regional Court having jurisdiction over the seat of the Data Controller (Győr Regional Court) or the court of the Data Subject's place of residence or habitual residence. Information on courts is available at <https://birosag.hu>.
